

And His name shall be called Immanuel...

“God with us.”

- Isaiah 7:14

It's More Than Just The Christmas Story

"Therefore, the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel, or God with us." - Isaiah 7:14

"God with us." After the year we've all experienced, what more comforting words could be shared?

Isaiah clearly had much to say in regard to dependence on God. In chapter 40:28-31, he writes, "Do you not know? Have you not heard? The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He will not grow tired or weary, and his understanding no one can fathom. He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak.

Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall; but those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary; they will walk and not be faint."

During struggles and trying times, it's hard to think about soaring on wings like eagles; running and not becoming weary; or even walking some days without growing faint.

Yet, as Christians, we know that we can do all of these because of the life Jesus led, the teachings He conveyed in His years on this earth and, more importantly, the ultimate sacrifice He made by going to the cross on our behalf.

As we enter into this season of great joy, may we be reminded of why God sent His Son. Let us be strengthened knowing that Jesus' victory over death provides for grace that is truly sufficient, mercy that is everlasting and peace that surpasses all understanding.

May we feel God's presence in very real ways as we celebrate the birth of His Son and focus on living in His light, sharing His love with others, and knowing that He is always with us.

Glory to God in the Highest!

Tanzania

“The LORD is my light and my salvation— whom shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life— of whom shall I be afraid?” - Psalm 27:1

God is faithful. That assurance has carried our Tanzanian partners through the trying times of this past year. With a variety of ministry efforts dependent upon many tangible connections of people and participation, it would be understandable for concern to set in. That was not the case, however, as belief in His Word guided decisions and work.

Kenya

“I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. I can do all this through him who gives me strength.” - Philippians 4:12-13

This past year has thrown challenge after challenge to the work of our partners in Kenya, yet faithful obedience has been the cornerstone in helping them face each one.

Women's Empowerment

Even in the midst of a global pandemic, women in Nyeri, Mweiga, Kieni West, and Shalom were engaged in several initiatives and opportunities. The goal is to recognize that empowerment involves not only business but social and spiritual needs for themselves and their families.

◆ New Business Startup - $200

Provides resources to help give women additional skillsets that will mean more viable options for supporting themselves and their families.

◆ Water Access for Homes - $300

This program continues to make a difference for struggling families. It connects homes to an existing water system and brings water directly to the family's tap so they no longer have to walk miles to bring back only what they could carry.
